

the revenue of the State government is a mutual one; it rests upon the Legislature, and it rests upon the Governor. The duty to keep State expense within proper limits is likewise mutual between us. I consider it my duty to veto the major appropriation bills, if not all appropriation bills now before you. I shall veto the major appropriation bills, and it is my purpose to issue a proclamation tonight convening the Legislature in Special Session for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The subject of appropriations for the support of the departments and institutions of the State government will be submitted for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
DAN MOODY, Governor.

And whereas, The conditions with reference to the appropriations are set forth in said message, and it is apparent that the amount of money carried in the appropriation bills exceed the prospective revenue of the State under the constitutional limit of taxation and, therefore, necessity exists to veto the major appropriation bills, if not all appropriation bills;

Now, therefore, I, Dan Moody, Governor of Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me under the Constitution and laws of this State, do hereby call an Extraordinary Session of the Forty-first Legislature to convene at the Capitol in the city of Austin, Texas, on Wednesday, July 3, 1929, at 10 o'clock a. m., to consider appropriations for State departments and institutions.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of the State to be impressed hereon at Austin, this the second day of July, A. D. 1929.

DAN MOODY,
Governor of Texas.

By the Governor:
WATT L. SANDERS,
Assistant Secretary of State.
